O. H. Austin's Estate.

STATE OF VERMONT, DISTRICT OF ORLEANS ss. In Probate Court, held at Newport, in said District, on the 28th day of June, A. D. 1900.

P. J. Farrell, administrator de bonis non with the will annexed of the estate of O. H. Austin, late of Barton in said district deceased, makes application for license to deed certain real estate of said deceased, described as follows: A parcel of land fronting the home place of H. W. Haselton and Eva M. Haselton, his wife, situate in the village of Barton Landing, Vermont, commencing at a stake set in the westerly line of the Connecticut and Passumpsic Rivers Railroad at a point one hundred and five and five-twelfths feet from the north-westerly corner of said Haselton's dwelling house; thence southerly forty eight degrees east of the center of Barton River; thence southerly along said River to the line of Skinner & Brown's land; thence westerly on said Skinner & Brown's line to the line of the Passumpsic Railroad; thence southerly on the line of said railroad to a point begun at: also a perpetual right of way by way of the present railroad crossing at the dwelling house of said Haselton; thence easterly across the land of said Haselton's by a passage convenient for access by teams to said parcel of land; the road or passage used by the said Skinner & Brown's land to the line of the Passumpsic Railroad; thence by them in good repair at least so far as to said Haselton's said dwelling.

Representing that on or about the 21st day of September, 1891, the Barton Landing Bobbin Spool and Novelty Company, a corporation, purchased of H. W. Haselton and Eva M. Haselton, said premises above described, and entered into an agreement with C. S. Skinner, E. L. Chandler and said O. H. Austin whereupon it was agreed that said Skinner, E. L. Chandler and said O. H. Austin in trust, for the benefit and use of said Company; and that said Skinner, E. L. Chandler and said O. H. Austin should hold the legal title to said premises subject to the direction and control of said Company, and were to convey the same when thereunto requested by said Company, to whomsoever said Company should request or direct; that in accordance with said agreement, said premises were conveyed for said Company to said Skinner, E. L. Chandler and said O. H. Austin by warranty deed, and were fully paid for by said Company, and not by said Skinner, E. L. Chandler and said O. H. Austin or either of them; that while said conveyance, in form, is an absolute conveyance to said Skinner, E. L. Chandler and said O. H. Austin, in fact, it is a conveyance in trust only as aforesaid; that O. H. Austin in his lifetime or the estate of said O. H. Austin now has no right or ownership of property in said premises, and no interest therein; that said Barton Landing Bobbin Spool and Novelty Company have requested the administrator of the estate of said O. H. Austin to convey said property in connection with said other grants to the Parker & Young Company as by the terms of said trust agreement they ought when so requested by said Barton Landing Bobbin Spool and Novelty Company; and praying that said Court, issue its license to the administrator of the estate of said O. H. Austin authorizing and empowering him to execute a conveyance to such part of said premises as is legally vested in said estate, to said Barton Landing Bobbin Spool and Novelty Company, in accordance with and in the execution of said trust agreement, and as is provided by law under the provisions of the Statute in such case provided.

A hereupon it is ordered by said Court, that said application be referred to a session thereof, to be held at the Probate Office in Newport, on the 18th day of July, A. D. 1900, for hearing and decision thereon; and it is further ordered that notice hereof be given to all persons interested by publication of the same three weeks successively in the Orleans County Monitor, a newspaper published at Barton, Vt. previous to said time and point of hearing, that they may appear at said time and place and show cause, if any they may have, why said license should not be granted.

By the Court. Attest, 27-29 F. E. ALFRED, Judge.
